

Local Matters.

A CARD.
Thursday Morning, September 29, 1859.
227 W. H. Grimes and Judy, of this city, were in St. Louis yesterday.

SELLING WITHIN BOUNDS.—Wm. Lewis was in Memphis on Tuesday, yesterday for selling him without license.

Mr. Price's Note.—The late well-known and popular local editor of the Journal, left the city for the State Capital last night.

Captain D. F. Jackson.—The city jailor, and W. H. Bridges, Esq., are absent from the city, Captain D. F. Jackson, and the latter in East Tennessee.

For the STATE CAPITAL.—The members of both houses of the Legislature, from this city and county, will leave this city for Nashville to-morrow.

MEMPHIS MEDICAL COLLEGE.—The winter course of lectures will be opened on November 1st, Prof. Dr. E. C. Keeler, the Dean of the Faculty.

VIOLATION OF THE STATE'S LAW.—Jacob Soinibah, proprietor of the Tunnel Saloon, was fined two dollars by the Recorder yesterday for selling liquor without license.

Mr. Price's Note.—The late well-known and popular local editor of the Journal, left the city for the State Capital last night.

Mr. Price's Note.—The late well-known and popular local editor of the Journal, left the city for the State Capital last night.

GAYOS DRAMATIQUE.—This society will meet at the hall in the center of Main and Union streets, to-night at 7 o'clock. A full audience of the members is particularly requested to be present for the opening on the Christian Sabbath.

Memphis Choral Society.—Hugues Richard was in the Court yesterday, in the absence of Major East, who is yet confined to his room by illness. There were thirteen cases before the court, and some additional were made to the chain-gang.

ATTENDED IN MEMPHIS.—An unusual effort was made at 12 o'clock yesterday noon to burn down the building on Poplar street, with Major East, on the platform. The design of the incendiary, however, was thwarted, and the building was but slightly damaged.

LANCY.—A man named John Watt was attacked yesterday on the change of steamer at a hotel, and received injuries from a stone. Mrs. E. Hall, of Clarksville, the property was found to be a negro, to whom Watt had been exposed to the weather. The advice will be examined before Exeter Court this morning.

DANCING.—Our readers will not forget that Mr. Lipps opened his dancing Academy to-day at 10 a.m. in the room above No. 74 for the benefit of his class. The well known ability of the Professor in his fascinating art will insure a large attendance at his academy. Persons desiring instruction will find his attentive and skillful in cultivating his art.

HIGHWAY ROBBERS.—Patent Attorney to-day at 10 a.m. in the office of H. M. Morrissey, 100 Main street, that he had been knocked down somewhere in the suburbs of the city Tuesday, and robbed of the sum of $40, by some persons unknown to him. Morrissey said the man who perpetrated the outrage had since been committed to prison under a charge, but he could not identify him.

FERNERI FLIGHT.—We stated yesterday that Margaret Dallas had been arraigned before Exeter Court on a peace warrant; and she is now before Judge Albrecht. The complaint was filed by the residents of Hindsboro, a woman who has a son in the army, and a warrant issued against Ann Carter at the complaint of Bridget, was more potent, as Ann was fined $25 for assaulting Bridget.

MECHANICS AND WORKERS.—The universal complaint among strangers coming to this city is the enormous prices charged for labor and materials. The same is true in relation to the rents of accommodations and residences. When city tax and insurance rates are applied to the annual or monthly rents, the amount paid for rent becomes double or triple what it would be if we were to pay for work only. The shelter which protects us from the elements, together with a large attendance of mechanics, will be sold out of doors.

SALE OF FURNITURE.—The Rev. G. H. Selskey, in the city, is obliged to leave, to the great regret of all his associates, and friends in the city. This morning at 10 a.m. at the residence of H. M. Morrissey, 100 Main street, Mr. Locke will sell his furniture by auction, and the terms are such that the referee may be entitled to a discount. The sale will be held at 10 a.m. on Saturday morning.

Mr. Murdoch.—He was captured yesterday by police officers, and was arrested at the corner of Soto and Gayoso streets, was arrested by officer Pickett last evening, for outrageously beating his wife. He was caught in the act, and will have to suffer the penalty of imprisonment for his conduct. Exeter Court will hear his case on Friday morning.
